Feature overview

G-P's industry-first Employment Contract Generator makes it quick and easy to automatically generate and customize locally compliant employment contracts in 180+ countries.

Problem solved

Manual contract creation is time-consuming and can delay the onboarding process. That's why we've created an automated solution to reduce time to hire while ensuring compliance with local laws.

Growth opportunities unlocked

G-P's Employment Contract Generator eliminates the headaches that come with manually creating contracts, freeing you to focus on the opportunities that matter most to your business. With our automated solution, you can draft, customize, approve, and share employment contracts with your global candidates – quickly and easily.

Why risk losing valuable talent due to lengthy manual processes? With our Employment Contract Generator, you can streamline the onboarding experience by providing legally compliant contracts in just minutes.

Key features

A fully automated self-service experience allows you to generate locally compliant contracts by simply filling out a few details.

Built-in country-specific legal guidance on local regulations ensure informed and competitive employment agreements.

Contract template customization enables you to request changes to country-specific contract templates directly in-platform.

Onboard multiple professionals at the same time with the ability to approve employment contracts in bulk – with just a few clicks.

The screenshot displays the G-P EOR onboarding interface. On the left, the 'Job Information' section includes a date picker for 'Employment Start Date' (set to September 26, 2022), a radio button selection for 'Does The Employee Require A Work Visa?' (set to 'No'), and a text input for 'Job Duties' (set to 'Develop Software'). Below this is a '+ Add' button. On the right, a progress bar shows step 4 of 4, labeled 'Compensation'. Below the progress bar, the 'Compensation' section includes a text input for 'Annual base salary*' (set to '£60,000') and three radio button questions: 'Is this individual eligible for a Sign-On bonus?', 'Is this individual eligible for a bonus?', and 'Is this individual eligible for Commission/Incentive payments?'. All 'No' options are selected.
